Throughout the conference year our District Superintendents have encountered several instances where clergy life and official administration has been addressed. We have done our supervisory work, at times calling for mediators to work with us. We have taken several actions throughout the year to strengthen pastoral effectiveness in specific appointments, some decisions affecting the placement of pastors. We have proceeded in our work and decisions only after much prayer and in consultation with the pastors and Staff Parish Relations Committees involved. We are at peace with our work and with the decisions made. With this statement, we are able to answer YES to this question.
