

Provisional Members
Name	Service Record	School	Degree
Sarah Borgstrom	7/1/2014 Centenary: Lambertville and 7/1/2015 Ringos: Linvale (PLP)	Princeton Theological Seminary	Master of Divinity 5/2015
I see God at work in the Team Vital process. After a year of seeking to discern the future God had for them, Centenary UMC walked in to the first day of workshops and walked out with a renewed understanding of who God was calling them to be in the world.
Maylis de la Fe - Rodriguez	2003-2009 Emanuel: Union City, 2012-2015 Verona (PLP)	Drew University	Master of Divinity 5/2013
Loss, suffering and pain can extinguish the precious gift of life that we have received from God since we were in our mother's womb; yet, the Spirit of God never ceases to call our name into existence with words, with music, with all of creation, whispering or shouting: "You Are My Beloved Child." I see God at work in the world when dried bones come back to life and when valleys filled with shadows of death spring up with rivers of hope.
Elizabeth Ealie	2011-2013 Barnegat, 2011 Brookville and West Creek (PLP)	United Theological Seminary	Master of Divinity 12/2015
I see God at work in the world in the creativity and generosity of time and talents of individuals in the local church. Working together, we are truly Spirit filled.
Blair Goold	2013-2014 Cedar Grove, 2014 Monmouth Grace: Eatontown (PLP)	United Theological Seminary	Master of Divinity, 5/2016
I see God moving through the younger generations who will not only usher in the renewal of the United Methodist Church, but spark a general revival of Jesus followers who possess a deep faith and the moral will to bring societal transformation. Also, having recently visited Cuba, I can attest to a spreading and passionate spiritual revival in the Global South that will inevitably move northward.
Katelyn Hillis	2015 Lumberton (PLP)	Princeton Theological Seminary	Master of Divinity, 5/2015 Master of Christian Education, 5/2015
I see God at work in the world when the relationships that make up our collective and created life recognize their mutual interconnectedness and strive to live in harmony with one another.
Michael Anthony Howard	2014-2015 Trinity: Rahway (PLP), 2015 Trinity: Mullica Hill (FL)	Drew University	Master of Divinity 5/2014
God is always at work in majestic and mysterious ways that bring nurture and restoration to all Creation, especially in little ordinary things such as feeding birds and clothing lilies (Luke 12:24, 27). This same life-giving God is also at work in us as we are empowered by God's Spirit to go as peacemakers into the perpetual violence around us in order to follow Jesus by giving our lives to struggle for life and justice in his memory.
David Ledford	2013-2015 Diamond Hill: Berkeley Heights, 2014-2015 Springdale,	Drew University	Master of Divinity 12/2014

	2015 Wesley: Phillipsburg (PLP)
I see God in the face of each and every person Earth, all diverse and all wonderfully made in the image of God. I see the Spirit of God in action when love and forgiveness are shown to all people in all places from nursing homes to hospital beds, from street corners to places of work, from places of worship to private homes, from one country to another and from all things living on land to all things living in the air and sea.
JongIn Lee	2013-2014 Korean Community: Englewood, 2013-2016 Good Shepherd: Bergenfield (FLP)	Drew University	Master of Divinity 5/2008
I see God's working from surrounding nature and from the places where broken relationships among people are restored.
Daeil Min	2013 Waldwick (PLP)	Drew University	Master of Divinity 5/2012
"I see God at work when ordinary people do extraordinary things with the love of God."
Richard Romero	2014-2015 Aura, 2015 Asbury: Camden (PLP)	Drew University	Master of Divinity 8/2014
God is at work in the hearts and minds of individuals creating a passion for the glory of God and the joy of all people. God is at work through any person who gives compassion, love and care for every human and all creation.
Joshua Shuster	2014 Westmont (PLP)	Evangelical Theological Seminary	Master of Divinity 5/2016
I see God at work in the world through daily promises and blessings found in the scriptures. Also, as I see someone stop and help others in need I am reminded of the hope, grace, and sacrifice Christ made for all people.
William B. Wilson Jr.		Candler School of Theology	Master of Divinity, 5/2016
"I see God at work in-between the lines of the newspaper, in the margins, as God works to liberate the world from all evil and violence and liberate each heart from the power of sin and death."

Full Members
Name	Service Record	School	Degree
Anna Gillette	2012 Lambertville: Centenary (PL), 2014 Princeton (Associate), 2015 Marlton (PE)	Princeton Theological Seminary Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary	Master of Divinity
When the church moves beyond its four walls and sees to the needs of the community and the world, I see God at work. When personal relationships turn to conversation, evangelism, and an invitation to know Jesus Christ, I praise God for working in and through the church.
Peter Jamieson	2007 Haddonfield, Assistant (PL); 2008 Pitman, Associate (FL); 2011 Dennisville and South Dennis: Trinity; 2014 Egg Harbor Twp: Asbury and Ventnor: Trinity (PE)	Palmer Theological Seminary Claremont Graduate University	Master of Divinity 5/2011 Master of Arts: Old Testament 1972
God's presence in our world is evidenced by God's reaching out in grace-filled love through the actions of people caring for our neighbors in need of any kind.
Woo Min Lee	2013 Appt. to attend school (Paramus:Arcola Korean); 2014 Little Falls (PE)	Harvard Divinity School Drew University	Master of Theological Studies 5/2007 Doctor of Philosophy 5/2016
I see God at work within me for the ministry of Jesus Christ in the world.
Christina Lelache	2014 Haddonfield, Associate (PE)	Methodist Theological School of Ohio	Master of Divinity 5/2014
I see God at work when people overcome fear and division to come together in love and community. God's love is made known through the love and care we show others in the way Jesus modeled.
Ayn Masker	2002 Deerfield; 2006-2009 Penns Grove: Emmanuel (PL); 2010 Fairton (PL); 2012 Wanaque: Midvale (PE)	Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary	Master of Divinity 5/2004 Master of Theological Studies in Counseling, 5/2002
When I see smiles on faces and hear squeals of delight I am witness to the glorious explosion of God's love and joy. In tears, pain and craziness I see God in the hope, grace and peace that surpasses human understanding. I see God in every foot step that has led me to where I am. I see God in sacred moments that could never have been planned. I see God in me through your reflection.
Cameron Overbey	2014 Cranford (PE)	Duke University	Master of Divinity 5/2014
I see God at work in the world perhaps most extraordinarily in the ordinary liturgies of life. The resurrection in the new life of spring, the breath of God in the miracle of our daily rising, the Holy Spirit in the Eucharist around our daily meal tables, and even in the presence of Christ in the tears shed by the mourning, the poor, and the oppressed; God is always at work.

John Randall	1982 Camden: State Street; 1987 Delair: St Matthew's (PL); 2014 Bridgeton: First (PE)	Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary Rowan University Wilmington University	Master of Religion 1986 Master of Arts 1997 Doctorate of Education 2005
I see God at work in the world empowering communities by means of providing resources to build God's Kingdom on the earth. I also see God at work inspiring individuals, families, organizations and the Church to lift up the standard of caring for all of God's people.
Brian Rhea	2008 Haddonfield, Associate (PLP); 2013 Millville: Fourth and Newcombtown (FL); 2014 Millville: Fourth and Newcombtown (PE); 2015 Millville: Fourth (PE)	Asbury Theological Seminary Princeton Theological Seminary Boston College	Master of Divinity 5/2007 Master of Theology 5/2010 Master of Arts 12/2013
Where is God not at work in the world, from the wonders of creation to mysteriously bringing good out of evil? My favorite moments, though, are when cold hearts become suddenly alive to God--hungering for Scripture, lingering in prayer, seeking justice, witnessing joyfully to God's redeeming work.
Jessica Stenstrom	2014 Sergeantsville (PE)	Drew University	Master of Divinity 5/2014
I see God at work in the world when the body of Christ is the hands and feet of Jesus: feeding the hungry, caring for and visiting the sick, and offering prayers and support to people imprisoned by poverty, depression, addictions and other forms of oppression. I see God at work whenever we stretch beyond our comfort zone to offer hope and God's love to someone who'd otherwise be ignored by the world.
Sharon Yarger	2009-2014 Succasunna, Associate; 2015 Chatham, Associate (PD)	Drew University	Master of Divinity 5/2001
I see God at work in congregations faithfully caring for one another and for their neighbors, near and far, who are hurting. And I see God at work in persons of various faiths joining together to seek common ground and the common good.			