

Discovering God's Future for Your Church Conference & Live Stream

Saturday, November 5, 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Eastern Standard Time

Learn a step-by-step process for discerning God's vision for your church.

Conference attendees may participate in person in Washington, DC, or via live stream from their own computer or mobile device across the globe.

Learn how to answer these questions about God's future for your congregation:

- From where does vision come?
- How do you know if the vision is right for your church — right at this time, right in your context?
- How do you communicate the vision so that it lives in your congregation's culture?

Presented by Dr. Lovett H. Weems, Jr., distinguished professor of church leadership of Wesley Theological Seminary and director of the Lewis Center for Church Leadership.

Early-bird registration discounts through October 4

Invite others from your church to join you!

- In-person conference registration: ~~$50~~ $40 per person
- Live stream registration for 1 person: ~~$50~~ $40
- Live stream registration for groups (2+): ~~$75~~ $60

Discovering God's Future for Your Church is ecumenical and designed for both laity and clergy.

Learn more and register today at churchleadership.com/register

Lewis Center
for Church Leadership