

NOMINATIONS REPORT INSTRUCTIONS

The Nominations Report is a complete listing of persons who are elected to serve in the local church, including specific officers such as the recording secretary and financial secretary, lists of all team/committee members, optional committees (such as a lay personnel committee or an investment committee), members at large of Church Council or other committees, and additional leaders for specific ministries of the congregation.

The report is created by the local church and should be organized in a way that puts those persons and teams that must be elected by the Church Conference at the beginning of the report and easily identified. Newly nominated persons to be elected at this Church Conference should be identified either by an asterisk, underlined, or in italics. This should include those who are being recommended for a new three year term.

The Book of Discipline provides for congregations to design an alternative structure, such as a one committee model. An alternative structure must be approved by the Church Conference after consultation with and approval by the District Superintendent. Should you desire to adopt an alternative structure, please be in conversation with the DS early enough to allow for this process. Churches with alternative structures should consult with their Regional Administrator for guidance about how to transfer this structure into the Directory of Officials.

The Nominations Report should/may include:

1. Church Council

The Nominations Report should provide a complete listing of members of the Church Council, beginning with those positions required by the Book of Discipline ¶252:
