Seeking a Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer

The Greater New Jersey United Methodist Annual Conference is seeking a Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer to steward the financial, property and administrative areas of the 530 churches in our region. This position will help lead our conference forward and grow our financial resources so that our ministry together will thrive.

We are looking for a team member who values:

- innovation and risk taking
- excellence in its ministry and service
- compassionate and just service
- diversity
- collaboration

The person with the right experience will have served as a CFO for a nonprofit with a budget of $10 million or more and have experience leading and supervising staff in a cross functional business model.

UNITED METHODISTS
OF GREATER NEW JERSEY

Are you called to serve? Do you know of another who would be interested in this position?

Find out more and apply at: www.gnjumc.org/jobopportunities

Seeking a Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer

The Greater New Jersey United Methodist Annual Conference is seeking a Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer to steward the financial, property and administrative areas of the 530 churches in our region. This position will help lead our conference forward and grow our financial resources so that our ministry together will thrive.

We are looking for a team member who values:

- innovation and risk taking
- excellence in its ministry and service
- compassionate and just service
- diversity
- collaboration

The person with the right experience will have served as a CFO for a nonprofit with a budget of $10 million or more and have experience leading and supervising staff in a cross functional business model.

UNITED METHODISTS
OF GREATER NEW JERSEY

Are you called to serve? Do you know of another who would be interested in this position?

Find out more and apply at: www.gnjumc.org/jobopportunities