Example of how premium credit dollars work: A participant has a family plan and chooses the C2000 Plan with HRA that costs $2,067. The premium credit provided is $2,153 (B1000). The participant will now receive the difference between the cost of the two plans which is $86.00 per month. The participant will receive this in the HRA account each month for the 12 months of the year.
