

United HealthCare Annual Election

November 2 – November 17, 2022

Elections you make during this period will take effect January 1, 2023

If you are retired from the UMC of Greater NJ and are age 65 or older, and are eligible for health insurance in retirement, now is the time to:

- Enroll in the United HealthCare Medicare Advantage National PPO Plan if you waived coverage for yourself or for an eligible dependent in retirement, or have lost coverage in another plan.
- Requires active Medicare Parts A & B in place for enrollment. Part B premium is a participant expense.
- Contact the Benefits Assistant for a Retiree Enrollment Form. insurance@gnjumc.org or (732) 359-1036.
- For general questions about United HealthCare benefits, call Direct Path – our participant advocacy service – 1-866-253-2273
Monday-Friday 8 a.m. – 9-p.m., ET; Saturday 9 a.m. – 2 p.m., ET

Participants can view benefits online at www.uhretiree.com.

Annual Election for Retiree UHC Medicare Advantage Plan

Starts: Wednesday, November 2, 2022

Ends: Thursday, November 17, 2022

Retiree enrollment forms must be PROCESSED no later than 4 p.m. November 17!

After November 17, 2022 changes for 2023 HEALTH coverage can only be made if you experience certain qualifying events, such as marriage*, divorce, birth, adoption, death, or loss of a spouse's or eligible dependent's health coverage, or loss of coverage in another employer plan. Dependents losing eligibility, including divorced spouses, lose eligibility as a dependent in the plan at the end of month in which event occurs. Continuation Coverage and Divorced Spouse coverage may be available.

*Coverage for a spouse acquired after retirement is available at the participant's expense.
