

VISIONS of ABUNDANCE

FOOD JUSTICE, RACIAL EQUITY and LIBERATIVE MISSION

As bearers of a theology of abundance and a common table, our Churches value food access, many of them hosting or supporting growing food pantries.

But hunger is a reality for so many: is there something to do together?

Come, be a part of a transforming journey to the abundance God has already given us.

MARCH 25: 9:00 a.m. – 12 p.m.

9:00-9:20 Refreshments provided.

Denville Community Church, 190
Diamond Spring Rd, Denville, NJ

Workshop led by Kayann Foster, Community Engagement Coordinator, CUMAC-ECHO

Kayann Foster has spent the last 6 years working at a large anti-hunger non-profit -- CUMAC ECHO - which serves Passaic County and Northern New Jersey. She is a certified Community Health Worker as well as a certified presenter of the NJ ACEs Curriculum through New Jersey's Office of Resilience. Her passion is to help people understand and heal from trauma to help advance generational resilience.

This social principles initiative is generously funded by a generous community development grant from GNJAC and organized by a team of lay and clergy from Sparta UMC, Denville CC and Trinity UMC- Hackettstown and is the first in a series of Food Justice, Liberation and Racial Equity opportunities for the Northern Region of the GNJUMC.
