

In need of financial assistance to continue your education?

MANDEVILLE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS for 2024

NOW BEING ACCEPTED FOR FULL-TIME AND PERMANENT PART-TIME GRADUATE STUDENTS

If you are in need of financial assistance to further your education, take action by April 30th to be considered for funding through The Epworth Mandeville Scholarship Committee.

Through a generous gift from Doris and Arthur Mandeville, long-time members of Epworth United Methodist Church of Palmyra, NJ, this scholarship program was established. This program has been in existence for over 30 years. These awards are available to:

- Full-time and permanent part-time graduate students
- Who are members of the United Methodist Church in New Jersey
- And are preparing for ordained ministry or Christian education.

While awards are based on financial need, other factors including academic scholarship, church engagement, and community involvement are also factored into the evaluation process.

If you would like to be considered for a scholarship grant, you may access the application via the Epworth website at: www.palmyranjunc.org or you can send in a request to epworth.umc.nj.pg@gmail.com This information is also available on the GNJ UMC Conference website (Google GNJUMC Mandeville Scholarship), but be sure to access the 2024 version for the current application.

Completed applications must be received by April 30, 2024 through either of these two options, or go to Epworth's website and download an application here. Go to
